“ I spent many a weekend with Donnie and his family when they lived just off of S.R.16. There were some Wax Myrtle's in the side yard that we used as a “fort” and played for hours in. Even a small opening in the hedge that separated the front yard from the sidewalk that ran along 16, which we used as a “tunnel” playing Hogan's Heroes and escaping from Stalag 13! 🤔
Great times for sure!
I remember the great suppers that Mrs. Hagenbauch would serve also!
Times flies by too fast and we loose track of the best things in life like good friends! I'm guilty of allowing our friendship get lost in life, but am grateful that the Good Lord blessed us with happy childhood memories. R.I.P. Donnie and steer clear of any “flying monkeys”! ❤️
