

Dora M. "Dee" Davis

July 29, 1938 - August 17, 2020

Dora "Dee" M. Davis passed away peacefully on August 17, 2020, surrounded by loving family.

She is survived by the love of her life Gaylord G. Gerber. Children Donna, Holli, and Kyle Diodati, and Emily and Paul W. Davis Jr. Grandchildren Melanie Monell, Natalie Starr, Zachary and Victor Diodati, Nicholas, Alex, and Gina Diodati, Joshua Mayrand, and Kya and Zoe Davis. Great grandchildren Dominic Saul, and Eloise Diodati.

Dee, known to Gaylord as "Dearest", loved to travel. They visited many beautiful places together, in the U.S. and abroad. More times than not she was the best dressed person in any room due to her keen eye for fashion. Generosity is something that came naturally to Dee. There are many children out there that had toys on Christmas because of her donations to Toys for Tots. Fine dining and a passion for cooking were things she passed along to many of her own children. She had a love of animals and often talked about meeting her beloved cat Woody some day on the rainbow bridge. We know she must be happy to see him again. Dee lived in many places throughout her life, but Virginia and Boston were definitely two of her favorites. Along with an interest in the arts and extensive art collection, Dee was very creative as well. From painting to needlepoint, she could craft beautiful things. Dee lived a very full life and was loved dearly by many people. She will be lovingly remembered, and sorely missed by her friends and family.
