Dora Heiler Seidman

June 22, 1930 - March 15, 2013

Dora Heiler Seidman, age 82, of St. Augustine, went home to be with the Lord on March 15, 2013, passing away at the Earl B. Hadlow Center for Caring in Jacksonville, surrounded by her family. She was born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and lived there for many years. She had also been a longtime resident of Chicago and Warwick, Maryland and had worked as a secretary for David Grainger of W.W. Grainger Industrial Supply Co. After retiring, Dora relocated to St. Augustine in 1995, and began attending Anastasia Baptist Church, where she was active with the Quilting Ministry for many years. She loved travel, crafts and quilting, and will be especially remembered for her giving spirit and her big heart. She was preceded in death by her husband, Harry Seidman. She is survived by her daughter, Karen Bartlett, and her husband, Roger, of St. Augustine; sons, Scott Seidman, and his wife, Barbara, of Portland, Oregon and Marc Seidman, and his wife, Courtney, of Arlington, VA; seven grandsons and one great-grandson. A memorial service will be held at 2:00 p.m. on Sunday, March 24, 2013 at Trinity Episcopal Church, with Father Ken Herzog officiating. Donations in Dora's memory may be made to the Alheimers Association, 4237 Salisbury Rd, Suite 310 Jacksonville, FL 32216 "Thank you Family and Friends A.L.F., and the staff of Moultrie Creek Nursing Home for your wonderful care." St. Johns Family Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.
