

Dorian Norine Robinson

May 19, 1972 - November 9, 2018

Dorian Norine Robinson, 46, of St. Augustine, passed away November 9, 2018. She was born in Kingston, Jamaica, the daughter of Izett and Lois (Mundy) Robinson.

After moving to the US, she studied at Florida Atlantic University, graduating with a BS in Education. She taught at Merck Pharmaceuticals in their company day school before relocating to St. Augustine. At the time of her death, she was working as a Senior Residential Instructor for the Florida School for the Deaf and Blind.

Dorian raised two wonderfully accomplished children. She was an ardent reader and writer, and everyone can attest to where her leisure time was best spent. Her greatest love was to her family.

She is survived by her children Celeste and Logan; her mother Lois and sister Donia. She was preceded in death by a sister Raquel and her father Izett.

A memorial service will be held at 1:00 p.m. on Saturday, December 8, 2018 at St. Johns Family Funeral Home with the Reverend Ron Stafford officiating.

St. Johns Family Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

*Life is but a moment but love lives on forever. My prayer for you all during this really difficult time is that the love you have for Dorian will be what helps you smile through the tears. May the God Who loved her comfort you with the knowledge that your loved one is now forever basking in the perfect love of her Creator, forever smiling down upon you. With love and my deepest sympathies,

“ I miss you so much and I need you. I still think it's unfair how you had to miss out on some of my proudest moments as an adult . I graduated and I'm a mommy now. Your granddaughter will be one on the 18th your birthdays are almost exactly a month a part . I see so much of you in her . She gives me strength to go on and the reason I'm still here . You don't have to work so hard anymore you can rest now ,please continue to watch over her we love you mommy❤️💜

“ It is with great sadness that I find myself writing these words in remembrance of my lifelong friend Dorian. As much as I know that death is part of life; it happens, and this is something we all must face. I'm still in shock, for it was so sudden. You have gone too soon.

As painful as it is to bear your loss, I would rather relish and remember who you were in life; which is a cool, laid back, fun, pensive, pragmatic roots girl ... or as they say in Jamaica, "an Irie Yardie". Like a silent river, you didn't always say a lot, but you ran deep. Anyone who got to know you, knew that there was a lot of wisdom behind those kind, compassionate eyes.

Dori my old friend, although we didn't speak often, when we spoke, it was as if we were never apart. We've shared many memorable moments together. You have been a person who brings out the light in others, and truly makes life worth living. I have so many dear and precious memories of our antics that I will never forget. And I'm sure I'll be telling these stories for years to come. I remember when, back in Jamaica, a group of us cut school to take a boat trip on some tiny canoes in rough water to the barrier islands (Lime Quay) off the coast. What an adventure that was. I wasn't sure we were gonna come back from that one. I remember when we drove from NJ to FL in your car which had NO brakes, and we got lost in the deepest darkest night in the middle of Florida swamp land trying to find someone's house. That was another adventure. Also, there was the time you Doria and I went sailing, and the time with the brownies ... I won't get into details (My lips are sealed). So many adventures ... Sooo many pleasant memories.

Dori, let's just say that you brought a lot of joy, happiness and fond memories into my life, and I'm sure your friends and family can say the same. Thank you for being such a wonderful giving person. You were one to leave the world better than you found it. It is our great loss that you've left us so soon. The only thing that I can think is that our great lord drafted you because he wanted the best for his team, and in your case there was no question that you'd qualify because you were undoubtedly the best.

For those of us still navigating this mortal coil, let's not lose the lesson at hand. Because what I'm about to say, I think Dori would agree. Life is short! Tomorrow is guaranteed to no one! Let's cherish the ones we love in the present, because later may be too late.

“ Many people will walk in and out of our life but only true friends will leave footprints in your heart. I am so heartbroken and so sad. With the loss of my very good friend Dorian. Good byes are not forever, are not the end, it simply means I will miss you. I will cherish our friendships for the rest of my life. I am going to miss your laughter. There are no word that can describe how I am feeling. My heart just aches. I miss you so much. I know one day we are going to meet again . Until then my friend I will keep you in heart. Love you forever.

“ Celeste, Logan, Donia, and Lois, it so hard to believe Dorian is gone, but God makes no mistakes and I will truly miss her. Celeste and Logan your mommy loved you more than words can express and she never did anything without you two in mind. I want you both to continue to make her proud and cherish all the values and morals she has instilled in you. Celeste and Logan I leave you with a poem that has help me cope with the loss of love ones, I love you and we all loved your mom, but God loved her most When tomorrow starts without me,

And I'm not there to see,
If the sun should rise and find your eyes
all filled with tears for me,

I wish so much you wouldn't cry
The way you did today,
While thinking of the many things,
We didn't get to say.

I know how much you love me,
As much as I love you,
and each time that you think of me,
I know you'll miss me too.

But when tomorrow starts without me,
Please try to understand,
That an angel came and called my name,
And took me by the hand,
and said my place was ready,
In heaven far above,
And that I'd have to leave behind
All those I dearly love.

But as I turned to walk away,
A tear fell from my eye

*For all my life, I'd always thought,
I didn't want to die.*

*I had so much to live for,
So much left yet to do,
It seemed almost impossible,
That I was leaving you.*

*I thought of all the yesterdays
The good ones and the bad,
I thought of all the love we shared,
and all the fun we had*

*If I could re-live yesterday
Just even for a while,
I'd say good-bye and kiss you
And maybe see you smile.*

*But then I fully realized,
That this could never be,
For emptiness and memories,
would take the place of me.*

*And when I thought of worldly things,
I might miss come tomorrow,
I thought of you, and when I did,
My heart was filled with sorrow.*

*But when I walked through heaven's gates,
I felt so much at home
When God looked down and smiled at me,
From His great golden throne.*

*He said, "This is eternity,
And all I've promised you."
Today your life on earth is past,
But here life starts anew*

*I promise no tomorrow,
But today will always last,
And since each day's the same way
There's no longing for the past.*

*You have been so faithful,
So trusting and so true.
Though there were times
You did some things
You knew you shouldn't do.*

*But you have been forgiven
And now at last you're free.
So won't you come and take my hand
And share my life with me?*

*So when tomorrow starts without me,
Don't think we're far apart,
For every time you think of me,
I'm right here, in your heart.*

*Fly High my Girl, smile bright my friend.
Love, Curemia Pookie Dailey*
