

Dorothy Buckley

March 18, 1940 - April 2, 2025

Ms. Dorothy Buckley, passed on April 2nd, 2025. She was born on March 18th, 1940 in Philadelphia Pennsylvania.

She is remembered and loved by all, who called her Dottie. She was a mother of 4, and is survived by her second daughter, Phyllis and her sister Margaret McGeehan and husband William McGeehan. A strong woman, who loved her family and her country deeply.

Dottie was a devout follower of Christ, who was adored by her nine grandchildren and Twenty-eight great grand-children, both in Florida and Philadelphia. She was a dear friend to those in the Armed Forces and her Church; A great woman to her family and everyone else in her life. All those who met her considered themselves lucky to have crossed paths with her. She will be greatly missed.

A service will be held in her memory at St Ann's Catholic Church in DeBary Florida on Saturday May 17th, 2025.

“ May God Bless You & Keep you, Aunt Dot. Remembering all of our times driving us around to parks for picnics & all of the fun days we spent together at Lion's Lake. Oh, my! The memories. Our times together are most cherished. I can still hear your voice and your laugh. Thank you for being a fierce protector and cherished sister to my mom. May Eternal Light Shine Upon you. We send our deepest condolences to Phyllis, Ernie & family. Love, Mary & Preston
