

Dorothy Estelle Sullivan

July 28, 1936 - June 12, 2025

It is with a heavy heart we announce the passing of Ms. Dorothy Estelle Sullivan. Born July 28th, 1936, in New York New York. She was the child of Joseph Justin Young and Minie Bell (Mercie) Young. From her roots in the big apple, Dorothy- and that's Dorothy mind you, never Dottie or Dot. Dorothy- moved to Rhode Island when she was 17, before heading down to Saint Augustine after a spell and enjoying her time on the Ancient Coast. Dorothy was an awe- inspiring artist, not only working with ceramics, but marvelous in all forms of arts and craft. Her talent truly breaking waves with her coastal artwork, utilizing the shells and seagrass of nature in her pieces, bringing to life her environment on the canvas and cultivating creations that captivated your curiosity and consideration as well. Despite her artistic side, Dorothy's passion was only matched by the might of the ocean itself. Fathomless and deep, she was known as a fireball by her loved ones. Always one to keep you on your toes, even into her later years. Dorothy did not go peacefully into that good night, fighting to the very end. She is remembered with a big spirit, and even bigger heart.

Dorothy is survived by her three remaining siblings, Robert Young, Edward Young, and Angeline Trussel, of Michigan; Daughter Laura Hilliker, and Sons Lee Greco and Kerry Sullivan; Her Grandchildren- Dana Copher, Jaimeson Rushlow, Nicole Valenzuela, and Alexis Retetagos. Not to mention two additional generations; Eight Great Grandchildren, and Eight Great-Great Grandchildren.

Dorothy was preceded in death by her Parents, Joseph Justin Young and Minnie Bell Young; Her baby sister- though forever fondly in her heart- Ellen Louise Young; Sister Margaret Diane Atkins and her Brother Timothy Edward Young.

Services for Ms. Dororthy will be scheduled with her family at a later date. The family appreciates your prayers and well wishes during this troubling time. Dorothy was a lover, a fighter, and a strong woman above all else. We pray that she rests in peace.
