“ Met Doug back in 1987, he was one of my roommates after college. He was working for America Tobacco & Leaf Company at that time, and was studying at night for a Masters Degree at the University of Richmond. He and I form a life long friendship, and over the next 34 years, we played golf together, attended football, baseball, hockey and basketball games together. We took several golf trips to Myrtle Beach and attended a few NASCAR races at RIR, concerts at Innsbrook & "The National", and went on great road trip to JMU with Craig & Joe. We attended each other weddings and watched many Redskins games together. We also would have some intense racquetball games against each other! He came to my children's birthday parties, and was always kind to them, I knew he would make a great father one day, and he proved me right. I will miss my friend, and will continue to fondly remember all of the great times we had together. RIP.

I remember Doug telling us (me, his sister, and mom and dad) about some of your adventures. He sure treasured your friendship.
