Earl Wayne Baxtermoore, age 72, of St. Augustine, passed away on February 27, 2024 at UF Health Flagler Hospital. Earl was born on March 28, 1951 in Versailles, KY to parents Clarence Earl and Grace Moore. He attended Kentucky School for the Blind in Louisville and was a 1969 Graduate of Woodford County High School in Versailles. He attended Center College in Danville, Kentucky, where he graduated with a Bachelor degree in history and later attended University of Kentucky where he earned a degree in social work and became an avid fan of UK Wildcat basketball. After graduating Earl moved to Minneapolis and worked as a social worker. More significantly, Earl met the love of his life, Patricia Baxter in Minneapolis. Fulfilling a lifelong desire to become an attorney, Earl and Patricia moved to New York where Earl worked for a law firm and attended CUNY Law School. Earl married Patricia on December 26, 1990 and graduated law school in 1992. Earl and Patricia started their married life in New York and later moved to Seattle where their daughter Danielle was born. Earl worked as a land use and water rights attorney. He was intelligent and very accomplished but very humble. Earl later moved his family back to Kentucky, and adopted their daughter, Agapi, from Greece. Together they lived in Bremerton, Washington and Las Vegas, before recently settling in St. Augustine. Earl was an amazing father to his girls, and helped to homeschool them as they grew. He enjoyed a close family life including traveling extensively around the US and Europe. Earl will be fondly remembered by many, and lives on in the memories of his loved ones.

He is survived by his Wife of 33 years, Patricia Baxtermoore and two daughters: Danielle and Agapi Baxtermoore, all of St. Augustine. He was preceded in death by his parents, Clarence and Grace Moore.
