“ Condolences to Robert and all the family: Death is never an easy thing to deal with, but it is comforting to reflect on the precious hope that Jesus set before the world of mankind for whom he died. (John 3:16) At John 5:28, 29 Jesus, a man whose every word uttered from his mouth meant something, declared that the "...hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out . . ." Is this a pipe dream? Not at all, for it was to his friend Lazarus that we are told this at John 11:43-44; "And when he had said these things, he cried out with a loud voice: Lazarus, come on out! The [man] that had been dead came out with his feet and hands bound with wrappings, and his countenance was bound about with a cloth. Jesus said to them: Loose him and let him go. It is my wish that this precious hope will bring you comfort as you await that time when Jesus will say, "Eddie Lee Wright, Come On Out!" Please accept my deepest sympathy over for your loss. Deepest sympathy, "Collier Heights Native"
