

Edna Margaret Shroka

April 15, 1928 - August 7, 2024

Edna Margaret (Graham) Shroka died peacefully on August 7, 2024 at the Bailey Center for Caring, St. Augustine, with her daughters at her bedside. She was born the second of two children on April 15, 1928 in Pittsburgh, PA to Edwin Graham and Doris Boardman Graham. Edna grew up and attended school in Cleveland, Ohio. Working as a secretary after high school graduation, she married Edward Shroka in 1949.

Edna was preceded in death by Edward her husband of 45 years, her brother Jack, and her son James. She is survived by her children Judith Conlin (Dan) and Nancy Moore both of St. Augustine and Mark Shroka (Maria) of Tampa; grandchildren Evan Shroka, Katie Shroka, Jessica Rodrigues (Isaac), Thomas Moore, Brian Conlin (Amanda), and Sarah Conlin (Sagar Gondalia); great grandchildren Maggie and Mercy Rodrigues.

Edna loved being a lifelong member of the Episcopal Church especially Trinity Parish, and was active as an altar guild member, Bible Study participant, Eucharistic minister and lector. She loved her family, God and His creation, the North Carolina mountains, Nat King Cole and red roses. She greatly enjoyed swimming, reading and sewing. She looked forward to her daily cup of English tea and a cookie. She embraced life and delighted in a good laugh. Edna will be greatly missed by her family and friends. We were deeply blessed to have her with us for 96 years. Funeral services will be held at 11 a.m., September 5 at Trinity Parish, 215 St. George Street and will be live-streamed on Facebook and YouTube at trinitysta.org. In lieu of flowers memorial donations may be made to Trinity Parish Church.
