Eileen Georgeann Kottyan

May 23, 1923 - May 24, 2011

Eileen Georgeann Kottyan, age 88, of St. Augustine, passed away on Tuesday, May 24, 2011 at Flagler Hospital. Born and raised in Bucyrus, Ohio, Eileen had been a Florida resident for only one year, having moved from Mansfield, Ohio. She was a dedicated Registered Nurse, serving in the Health Care Industry throughout her life. Eileen was also a gifted artist who taught Art at the Holy Family Catholic School while living in Richmond, Indiana. As a member of that same parish, she also served as president of the church's Women's Club. Most recently, Eileen had attended St. Anastasia Catholic Church in St. Augustine. In addition, she enjoyed singing beautiful harmony with the well-known "Sweet Adelines." She was a loving mother, grandmother and great-grandmother, who will be sorely missed. She was preceded in death by her parents, George Sickmiller and Bernece Charleston, and is survived by her four daughters, Elaine Murrin of Graham, North Carolina, Kathleen Holland-Davis and Christine Kottyan, both of Columbia, South Carolina and Carol Allegretti of St. Augustine; nine grandchildren and fourteen great-grandchildren. Funeral Services will be held at 11:00 a.m. on Saturday, May 28th, at St. Johns Family Funeral Home. A visitation, beginning at 10:00 a.m., will precede the service. Flowers are welcome or memorial donations may be made to St. Anastasia Catholic Church, 5205 A1A South, St. Augustine, FL 32080. The family would like to extend their deep appreciation to Colette Sova-Wamsley of Haven Hospice, the 4th floor nursery staff at Flagler Hospital, Dr. Ernest Carames & Dr. Manoj Prakash, and the staff of St. Augustine Health and Rehab "for the wonderful care provided to our mother." St. Johns Family Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.
