

Eleanor Mary Crimi

February 13, 1941 - February 28, 2026

Eleanor M. Crimi, 85, of Crescent City, passed away peacefully on Saturday, February 28, 2026. Born in Stamford, Connecticut, she was the daughter of the late Alfred and Josephine Litturi. She was the beloved wife of the late Michael Crimi, who preceded her in death in 2017.

Eleanor worked for many years as a hairdresser. In her spare time, she found joy in gardening, cooking, and listening to music—especially the music of Joni James. Above all, she treasured time spent with her family and cherished traveling to Italy with her loving husband, Michael.

In addition to her parents and husband, Eleanor is preceded in death by her daughter, Cathlene Crimi, who passed away in 1967.

She is survived by her daughters, Michele Crimi of Port Orange, Florida, and Daniella Crimi of Stamford, Connecticut, and her son, Mark Crimi of Georgetown, Florida. She also leaves behind her beloved grandchildren, Christine Protanova, Daniel Scalzi, and Sara Scalzi.

Catholic prayers were offered at St. Johns Family Funeral Home, and interment took place at San Lorenzo Cemetery.
