

Eleanor Emily DeMayo

September 2, 1932 - October 26, 2020

Eleanor Emily DeMayo (nee Reichelt) age 88, passed away peacefully surrounded by her loving family on October 26, 2020. Beloved wife of the late Henry Joseph DeMayo. Loving mother of Valerie (Augustin) Mantia, Harry, Mady (Pat) Flynn, Adria (Thomas) Keenan, and Elyse (James Haggerty). Devoted grandmother of Patrick (Ashley), Zachary (Kelly), Derek (Jaclyn), Emily (Joshua), Thomas Jr., Faith, Liam and Conall. Delighted great grandmother of Benjamin, Emerson, and Evelyn; Peyton Eleanor and Harper; Landon and Lennon. Eleanor was one of the first female graduates of the Bronx High School of Science and completed her training as a pharmacist at Columbia University. She was active in her Massapequa Park NY community especially as a volunteer typist for low vision students, a Camp Fire Girl leader, and later in St. John's County FL as a guardian ad litem. She loved the beach, ocean swimming, was an avid bridge player, enjoyed games and puzzles, cross stitching, crocheting, knitting and creating stained glass art. We will miss her dearly.

“ My heart goes out to you all on the loss of your mom and grandma. She was a warm outgoing and caring lady who I knew as Mrs. Demayo for over 45 years. I see her beauty and wit in her children and she will always be with us. Prayers to you. Love Mary Burke
