

Eleanore Glomboski

April 21, 1925 - January 26, 2017

Eleanore Glomboski

April 21, 1925 - January 26, 2017

Eleanore (Ellie) Glomboski, age 91, of New Port Richey, Florida, formerly of Cranbury, NJ, died peacefully at Indigo Run Nursing Home in Daytona, FL on January 26, 2017. Ellie was born in Scranton, Pa. to Stanley and Julia Siminski on April 21, 1925. She is predeceased by her brother, Carl Siminski; sister, Patricia McCarthy and her husband of 45 years, Simon (Si) Glomboski. Ellie lived a very diversified life and had several careers and many talents. She worked as a seamstress in a coat factory during and after WWII, making military uniforms. After moving to Edison, New Jersey, she worked as a receptionist at the Westinghouse lamp factory. Later she, her husband and son, owned and operated a decorating retail store in Cranbury, NJ for 14 years. Ellie and Si retired in 1985 and spent their winters in Boynton Beach, FL playing golf and enjoying good times with friends. Her favorite past-time was golf, playing cards, painting and going to the casinos. She loved, adored and was so very proud of her only great grand-daughter, Simone Glomboski. Ellie was affectionately known as everyone's Aunt El and as the "High-Heel Queen" as she always wore 4 "heels to match her outfits. She had a zest for life and was loved by all who met her. She is survived by her son Robert Simon (Nadine); grandson, Robert Shaun (Alison); and great granddaughter, Simone Glomboski, all of St. Augustine, FL as well as 6 nieces and 5 nephews. The family is planning a "Celebration of Life" for family and friends on February 25. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to the COPD foundation in her name. The family would like to extend special thanks and gratitude to Have Hospice of St. John's County for the wonderful care they provided in her final days. St. Johns Family Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.