Eugenia B. Arana

September 13, 1920 - July 29, 2012

Eugenia B. Arana, 91, St. Augustine, died July 29, 2012 at the Moultrie Creek Nursing and Rehab Center. She was born in Playa Ponce, Puerto Rico and was a resident of St. Augustine since 1955. While in Puerto Rico she worked for the Department of the Navy in San Juan during WW II and then later worked as an executive secretary for IBM. After moving to St. Augustine she was actively involved with the St. Augustine Historical Society. She is survived by her son, George C. Mirabal (Irene), St. Augustine; grandchildren, Ronald D. Mirabal (Kelly), Gina Moses (George); great-grandchildren, Matthew Ward-Moses, Ryan Mirabal; two step great-granddaughters, Liz and Lexi Moses; and two nephews, Mario Bibiloni, Jr., and Walter Mario Bibiloni. She was preceded in death by her mother, Auristela B. Santiago; her husband, Luis R. Arana, who was a former historian for the National Park Service; and two brothers, George and Mario Bibiloni. St. Johns Family Funeral Home is in charge of the arrangements.
