

Federico Ruiz Jr.

Federico was born in Ponce, Puerto Rico to Carmen and Federico Ruiz Sr.

He grew up in Queens, NY, graduated high school and continued his education at Brooklyn Kings College where he studied Special Education. Then at Pratt Institute he received a BFA with Honors in Art Education. He continued at Queens College for Sculpture and Print making.

Federico loved working at El Museo del Barrio in New York City, where he connected deeply with his Puerto Rican roots and culture. His primary loves were family, creating personal works of art, sculptures, and paintings. He also loved to garden, cook, and eat seafood.

Federico was 70 years old and lived in the beautiful city of Saint Augustine, FL.

He loved and cared deeply and received love in return. He has now entered eternal rest. He is survived by his beloved wife and soulmate Ana, his devoted and loving son Akira, his daughter Michelle, son Michael and his grandchildren Michael Jr., Robert, Taylor, Carlito and Amaya. His sisters and brothers; Lourdes, Zulema, Ada, Nancy, Mari Lou, Raymond, and Jose. Nephews and nieces; Jennifer, Marc Anthony, Justin, Starr, Raegan, Erick, Layla and TJ.

“ As the art teacher/therapist at our special-needs school, Federico brought his warmth, passion, compassion and caring to his role. All of these qualities also made him an exceptional human being who made the world a better place. Federico will be sorely missed by many. Condolences to Ana, Akira and the entire family on your loss. With love, Eileen

“ Adriana knew Federico (and Ana) her entire life as they were her beloved neighbors here in Naples for years. The best neighbors we could ever want, as they were also friends. Adriana is 13 years now. She misses them since they moved to Saint Augustine. We all do here. What a great man! My husband and myself also respected and admired both Federico and his wife. What a loving and great couple! Adriana has an artist hand too! Federico was always impressed with her works of Art! Even her Kindergarten stuff he praised 😊 As she grew older, he taught her about shading and other techniques. He gave her so many many supplies! She loves to paint, and still has many brushes he gifted to her. She will forever remember the talent and the teachings of this wonderful man. We all will. Rest in Peace my friend. Prayers for his beautiful wife and all of his family.
