Floyd H. Perry

February 16, 1923 - June 11, 2011

Floyd H. Perry, 88, a lifelong resident of St. Augustine, passed away peacefully June 11, 2011 at home, surrounded by his family. Born Feb. 16, 1923, in Jacksonville, FL, he was a loving father and uncle. The owner of Perry Mining Company and co-owner of Marine Shell Products, he retired in 1992. From 1950 until the mid-1960's, he and his late brother Fred, were partners in Perry Brothers Machine and Welding Works. His passion was playing the fiddle. As a studio musician in Nashville in the late 1940's, he made several recordings with Bill Monroe and Pee Wee King. He was also a former member of the Fraternal Order of Elks, the St. Johns County Timber Growers Association and the Florida Cattlemen's Association. He was preceded in death by his parents, Henry W. Perry and Anna Lindsey Perry, a brother, Fred W. Perry and two sisters, Geraldine Medlin and Mabel Milman. He is survived by his sons, Charles F. Perry and John H. Perry of St. Augustine; a nephew, Faxon Bisset of Tampa; two nieces, Virginia DuBeau of St. Augustine and Joan Hill of St. Johns; four grandnieces and two grandnephews. Funeral services will take place at 1:00 p.m. on Thursday, June 16, at St. Johns Family Funeral Home with Rev. Curtis Register officiating. Interment will follow at Evergreen Cemetery. A visitation will be held from 6 to 8 p.m. on Wednesday at St. Johns Family Funeral Home and at 12:00 noon on Thursday prior to the service. Flowers are gratefully declined
