

Frances Mae Padgett Richardson

April 19, 1938 - September 11, 2021

Frances Mae Padgett Richardson, age 83, of St. Augustine, Florida, passed away on September 11, 2021 at Community Hospice and Palliative Care Center for Caring- Baptist Medical Center South after a brief battle with cancer.

She was born in the Whitehouse Neighborhood of Jacksonville, FL on April 19, 1938. She spent most of her childhood at the Baptist Home for Children in Jacksonville, FL. She always remembered her time there fondly and considered the other children and staff her family.

After living for a time in Winter Haven, FL and Savannah, GA, Frances settled in St. Augustine in 1962. She was a trained secretary and typist and worked as a typesetter for the St. Augustine Record in the 1970s and 1980s. She devoted her life to her family, helping to care for her children and numerous grandchildren. She also had a heart for animals and gave a home to many cats and dogs. As her friends and family know, Frances was quick to share her love for her country and her Savior, Jesus Christ.

Frances is survived by her sons, Tommy Richardson, David Medick, William Richardson (Carrie) of St. Augustine, FL and Michael Richardson (Lauren) of Richmond Hill, GA; her step-sons, Charles Richardson (Julie) of Elkton, FL and Joel Richardson (Gail) of Palatka, FL as well as an abundance of grandchildren including Ashley Rasor (Sean) and great grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her husband, Charles J. (Teddy) Richardson and sister Donna Boyer.

A graveside service will be held at 11 am at Craig Memorial Park on Saturday, September 18, 2021.

“Fran and I met during a Days in Spain. Our spouses were friends & we all assisted in the event. What a honest but loving lady she was. Later she came to worship at Calvary Baptist Church and we grew very close as good friends. Later In life FB brought us together again. Strong love for our Lord was her amazing stand. She was a red rose in my life.
