

Frank Henry Huntley, Jr.

May 12, 1968 - October 28, 2023

Frank Henry Huntley, Jr., age 55, of Crescent City, Florida passed away on October 28, 2023 at HCA Putnam Community Hospital. Frank was born in Norwich, Connecticut to parents Frank and Marietta Huntley and attended Norwich Free Academy. He later lived in Maine for 14 years where he crossed paths with the love of his life, Betty Paradie, through a CB radio conversation. That little conversation was the first of many steps that led to Frank and Betty's wedding on June 16th, 1990, held on Betty's Aunt's farm in Madison, Maine.

Frank wore many hats in his lifetime. He worked as a Truck Driver and Tree Surgeon for many years. Frank found solace and joy on the open road, often venturing out on his motorcycle, and in the evenings, you could often find him in a cozy pool hall, enjoying a game or seven with his close-knit group of friends. In September of 2004, Frank and Betty moved move to Crescent City, where he continued to embrace life to the fullest.

One of Frank's greatest joys was spending quality time with his cherished friends and family. Whether it was engaging in a spirited game of cornhole or simply relaxing with those he held near and dear, Frank cherished these moments more than anything else.

Frank leaves behind a legacy of love and memories. He is survived by survived by his devoted wife, Betty J. Huntley, daughter, Lisa Marie Huntley of Pomona Park, son, Michael Andrew Huntley of Crescent City, his mother, Marietta Huntley, and brother, Phillip Huntley, both of Crescent City. He is also survived by his beloved grandchildren, Colton Lambert, Megara Huntley, and Steven Ginn Jr.

Frank will forever be remembered for his warm heart, adventurous spirit, and unwavering love for those he held close to his heart.

A celebration of Frank's life will be held from 12 noon to 12 midnight on Saturday, November 11, 2023 at the home of his closest friends: 513 3rd Avenue, Satsuma, FL.

St. Johns Family Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.
