Like Sinatra, Mr. Mahr had the best life. He looks just as happy at 17 as he did at 75 with a drink in his hand. Whenever I saw him, he was in a good mood and was full of mischief. Love him in his nypd uniform. He served during a tough time.

Mr. and Mrs. Mahr were always so warm and gracious to me. Mrs. Mahr looks exactly the same!! Still so pretty.

This video was like a little time machine and it made me happy to see him so happy.

I'm saying my prayers, but that guy will do fine up there. Thank you to him and Mrs. Mahr for always being great to me. Cheers to a guy who did it right 🍷 Love, tara “ Goodbye dear friend. We have many happy memories of you, and these will live on in our thoughts and in our hearts. The thing that particularly comes to mind is your irreverent comical utterances; irreverent, yes, but never said with malice. You will sorely be missed.

“ Ann and I met Frank and Vicki thirteen years ago and we have been close friends ever since. We particularly loved, as did so many others, Frank's terrific sense of humor. He could make you laugh any time, any place. But even more important was that Frank was a loyal and faithful friend. He could be counted on to be there when you needed him and could be counted on to keep anything you shared with him in confidence. Ann and I will miss Frank for a very long time. There will never be another Frank.

“ We were so sad to hear about the sudden loss of Frank. Our thoughts and prayers are with you Vicky and your family. Frank was a classy guy and his sense of humor always put a smile on our faces. We had so many fun times when we lived at the Cascades with the 2 of you. You both always made your home so warm and inviting to us. The “big poker game in heaven now has a great new member”.

“ Devastating loss! Karen & I loved him so much. We had many great times together over the past six (6) years, as we got to know the extended families as well. As painfully hard as this is for us, we can't imagine how Vicki & the Mahr/Maloney families are hurting. We will cherish every moment we had with Frank, and never forget his impact on those he knew.

“ *It's so hard to lose someone you love, especially when it happens so unexpectedly.
We will always remember Frank as a man of fine character.
He loved his wife, his family and his friends.
Frank brightened our day, lifted our spirits, made us laugh and together with Vicky, brought us so much happiness. We were not ready to say goodbye.
Thank you Frank for your friendship and memories we hold dear.

“ Frank's rather sudden passing is difficult to grasp. I have known Frank since we were in our late teens, when we were both young, handsome, healthy and full of energy and excitement for our futures. He loved Vicky and was very fortunate to have her for a lifetime. They had a good life together and she can be comforted with tons of special and priceless memories until she meets with him again. Condolences to the family and all who will miss him.
