

Garrett Franklin Herrington

December 20, 1990 - October 12, 2022

Garrett Franklin Herrington was born at Atlanta's Dekalb Medical Center on December 20, 1990. He was the second miracle baby born to Franklin and Cheryl Herrington, joining big sister Amanda to complete the family of four. Garrett was his father's son, born with a passion for music – playing a little bit of everything (including a short period with the drums) but spending most of his time picking the guitar and strumming the keys of a Baby Grand Piano like his father. Garrett loved golf, his family and helping others, but more than anything he loved the Lord; he was dedicated to the church, worshiping and volunteering at Atlanta United Methodist Church and later at the Waynesboro First United Methodist Church in Waynesboro, Georgia.

Garrett is reunited in Heaven with his father, Franklin, where the pair are playing their music together for the Lord; and grandmothers Mary O. Herrington and Gwendolyn Greiner Dent. He is survived by his mother, Cheryl Dent Herrington of St. Augustine, Florida; sister, Amanda Belle Kalita and her husband, Josh; uncle Rev. Tom Oliver and many loving cousins. I'll be your candle on the water, My love for you will always burn.
