Anyone who knew Gary knew that he was incredibly kind-hearted. He wanted to help the world with his soul. He would do anything for anyone and could always be depended on. Gary's family and friends will miss him more than words can say.

“ It's so hard to think of you being gone forever. We so enjoyed our times together. You were always such a sweet guy. Watch over your Mom, Dad, your kids and family. You may be gone from our sight.....but you will never be gone from our hearts. Love and miss you, Kathy and Tom Healy

“ I'll never forget the day you dropped everything you were doing and came and pulled my Dad's truck out of the mud with your truck when we were in the middle of nowhere. The way you viewed others, no matter what their background was, the lowly and the poor especially, was filled with such genuine love and compassion for them. You wanted to help them. We had a couple great talks about life. I met up with you and Aunt Peggy for lunch one day and you shared with me the love and care you had for all of our family. You shared some of your ups and downs and how you were trying to workout and stay on the right track. I know you realized your mistakes and you were heartbroken over a lot of them but you were trying to do the best you could. I wish when I was down in FL that you could've swung by to meet our children and so I could see you for one last time before you left. I'll miss your big hugs and trying your delicious food, you inspired me, you know. Thanks for trying to get me to eat meat when I was younger, I finally got around to it, just never realized how fulfilling it would be, especially the pieces which came from you. I love you, Uncle Gary. You will be missed. May you rest in peace until we meet again. 🧡🕊️🌈

“ Tena koe Gary. I'm sitting here smiling thinking about the tall gentle man, who had a smile that embraced those around you. That nephew is how I remember you, with a ready smile, down with shooting the breeze about whatever was going on in your life and listening to what was the haps in Uncle and I's lives at the time.

I remember you needed to borrow my car - big old Buick that I loved, but ya know I was married to a Chevy dude 🤔 - for a few days, and me being a tad messy with coffee cups and such. You bought my car back looking shiny and new inside and out. I tried to lend it to you at least once a month after that lol. You always laughed that hearty laugh of yours when I'd ring ya and before I could say a word, you'd just say "no Aunt Trish, I have my car" lol our running joke for 3 months.

Taku Iramutu, Okioki I roto I Aroha - Now my nephew, you rest in Love. Arohanui Aunty Trish raua ko Whanau ❤️❤️❤️
