“ I am so sorry to read about the loss of Mr.Peters and I wanted to extend my condolences to your family. We are encouraged by the fact that God knows and feels our pain. We are encouraged to "throw our burdens on him and he will sustain us" (Psalm 55:22). Although there are tears of grief today, God promises a joyful tomorrow without death, mourning, pain, tears or sorrow (Revelation 21:4). He also promises a resurrection to life for our loved ones who have died (John 5:28,29).

“ Uncle Jerry was one of the kindest men I knew. He was so ornery and his "little antics" could always get me to laugh, which made every single visit of ours so enjoyable! He will always have a special place in my heart. Goodbyes were always so emotional, and that's when I knew that REAL MEN do cry. I know he and Mom are up in Heaven "catching up" on family news:) Love you and miss you.
