

Gladys Calloway Wiley

May 15, 1955 - December 31, 2020

Gladys Calloway Wiley, 65, of St. Augustine, passed away December 31, 2020, with her husband, daughters, and grandchildren by her side.

She was born to the late Moses R. Calloway Jr. and Maggie Dillard Calloway Jones, May 15, 1955, in Lynchburg, Virginia. She was raised by her mother and the late Rev. Napoleon Jones. Gladys graduated from Lord Botetourt High School in 1973 and received a BA in Nursing from Old Dominion University in 1980. She selflessly dedicated 40 years to the medical field, tending to the needs of thousands.

She was married to Travis Wiley in 1974, and they lived in several states, including Ohio, Northern Virginia, and California. They even made homes in Beijing, China, and Zushi, Japan, before settling in Florida.

Gladys was a generous soul who brought joy to the lives of everyone she encountered. Creative and inquisitive, she loved to spend her free time crafting and sought adventure both far and near. The beach was her second home. She was also known for her wit and gregarious nature. She was a fan of Mary and Lifetime movies, but she could often be found lost in great books as well. Gladys was a maverick, a boss, and the very definition of love.

Gladys is survived by three children and two grandchildren: Pamela Wiley, of New York City; Nikki Wiley, of Orlando; and Tanya Wiley, Lillian Wiley, and Layla Gill, of Orange Park. She is survived by seven brothers and sisters as well: Rev. Charles (Drema) Calloway, Barry Calloway, Carolyn (Thomas) Tucker, Barbara (Harry) Lewis, Gregory Jones, Barbara Jones, and Jesse

Jones.

She is also survived by aunts and uncles, a host of nieces and nephews, cousins, friends and neighbors.

A viewing ceremony will be held on Thursday, January 07, 2020 at 10 a.m. at the St. John's Funeral Home. A Celebration of Gladys' life will begin at noon following the viewing. The family asks that people make donations in support of the AARP Foundation <https://foundation.aarp.org/site/Donation2> or Wounded Warriors, <https://support.woundedwarriorproject.org> , in lieu of sending flowers.

In keeping with the CDC Coronavirus guidelines every attendee must wear a mask and the number of attendees may be restricted. We ask that if you are at high risk, feeling ill, or traveling from an area with a high level of infection, please do not attend the service. “ I feel honored and blessed to have had Gladys in my life. She was an amazing lady. She was the most genuine person I know. She loved her flying pigs. I will always think of her when I see them. She had the most amazing ability to make you comfortable in any situation. I will find peace and comfort till the day I am no longer on this earth by keeping her in my heart. She had shared so much of her family memories and honored me by inviting me to family events. Travis and Gladys complimented each other like none I have met. She raised three amazing daughters Pam, Nikki, Tonya. My heart aches for you all. But I hope you find peace and happiness in knowing how much you mom was loved by so many, and the memories you hold close inside of you. My deepest heart felt hugs goes out to all of you. ❤️

“ i was so saddened to hear of Gladys passing. I saw her last a couple of years ago at the Texas Steak house, with Barbara Ann and Jesse. I feel like they are part of my family, growing up together in Hollins, many memories. These are beautiful pictures of Gladys and her family of a life well lived. May she rest in eternal peace. Love to the family.

To Travis, and the entire Calloway/Jones family. My heart is so heavy with the passing of my dear friend Gladys. We shared so much growing up together. I always considered her my best friend regardless of where we were in life. My God grant you peace and comfort thru this difficult time. The wonderful memories will always be present. Rest in eternal peace my friend. Love to the entire family. Nancy Wiley Pullen Roanoke, Va
