

Glenn Eugene Moll

April 30, 1961 - August 5, 2018

Glenn Eugene Moll, 57, passed away on Aug. 4, 2018 at his home in Jacksonville, Florida. Glenn was born on April 30, 1961 in Jacksonville, Florida to Donald and Joyce Moll. He is survived by his mother, Joyce Moll, sister, Linda Moll Ford (Jody Cowart); niece, Kristi Ford Schuler (Stefan), nephew, Christopher Ford (Lori Anne), and great-nieces Abbey and Emma Schuler. Glenn was preceded in death by his loving son, Alex Moll, his father, Donnie Moll and his nephew, Ryan Ford. Glenn grew up in St. Augustine, graduating from St. Augustine High School in 1979 with his early days fondly remembered by his prized yellow Mustang, his love for good rock and roll and a talent for playing the guitar starting in the high school Stage Band. Glenn started working at Bozard Ford in the parts department and then moved to North Florida Lincoln for many years in parts. He then became their Collision Manager. Glenn was a smart, kind and loving person to all he met. He was a dedicated and loving father to Alex and shared a passion for all types of music with him. Glenn had a rare ability to self-teach and master anything he set his mind to including playing the guitar, building computers, and renovating a home. Glenn got great joy from collecting and re-purposing his finds for his next project. He loved to play his cherished black Les Paul Custom with his friends throughout the years. Visitation will be 5-7 p.m., Thursday, August 9th and services will be held at 3 p.m. on Friday, Aug. 10, 2018, both at St. Johns Family Funeral Home. “ Even though I haven't seen Glenn in many years, we stayed in touch via Facebook. I have fond memories of Jamming with Glenn on occasion. He was a good soul and kind friend. And a talented guitar player. My deepest sympathies go out to the family. May Glenn rest in eternal peace.
