

Glenn Paul Shivers

September 21, 1952 - March 25, 2020

Glenn Paul Shivers, 67, of Ponte Vedra, died unexpectedly on March 25, 2020, at Baptist South Hospital.

Glenn was born September 21, 1952 in Camden, New Jersey as the eldest son to Reverend M. Russell Shivers and Constance (Edwards) Shivers.

He graduated from Millville High School in Millville, New Jersey. Glenn continued his education, graduating with a Bachelor's Degree from Mt. Olive College in Mt. Olive, North Carolina and a Masters Degree in Business Communications from the University of Phoenix. Glenn worked for many years at West Pharmaceutical Services out of North Carolina and in recent years at Navitas Credit Corp. in Ponte Vedra where he was loved by all of his colleagues.

Happily married for many years, Glenn adored his wife Judy. Glenn and Judy loved to spend time together in the outdoors. They previously lived in North Carolina where they spent happy times with their family, friends, dogs and horses. After moving to Florida, Glenn additionally spent many happy hours outdoors, hunting and fishing with his brother Gary. Glenn and his three brothers had a grand time anytime they were all together for a special occasion. Glenn will be remembered for his strong faith and giving nature, always ready to provide help to those less fortunate than he.

Glenn is survived by his parents Reverend (ret.) M. Russell and Connie Shivers, his loving wife, Judy Hunter Shivers of Ponte Vedra, his daughter Susan Mclawhorn and spouse Jenny of Portland, Oregon and his grandson

Oliver Elias Martin of Portland, his son Joel Patrick Mclawhorn of Chapel Hill, North Carolina; his brothers; Gary Shivers and wife Laura of St Augustine, Gregg Shivers and wife Pam of Medford, New Jersey, Grant Shivers and wife Lynne of Glassboro, New Jersey; and his nine nieces and nephews. Glenn was preceded in death by his daughter, Rebecca Jean Mclawhorn. A Memorial Service is pending.

St. John's Family Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

“ Glenn was a great man and a great father. He and I didn't agree on most things, but we loved and respected one another. He told the worst jokes and was ridiculously good at marbles. He cleaned up like a champ, and no one looked better in a tux than my Pop. He loved my mom more than anything in the world. He was her partner in all areas and he always had her back. He was always a gentleman, and insisted on opening doors for me, even when I was twenty-one and told him it was a patriarchal insult used to repress women. He put up with a lot and never blinked an eye. He was a Christian and believed in being good and helping people. He couldn't have loved us more if we were his own. He was amazing to me, and to my brother and sister. I couldn't have asked for a better step-dad. I know he's in Heaven with my sister Becky, and I hope they're playing marbles and laughing at bad jokes. Rest in peace, PopPop. I love you always.

“ I was a student at the Wesley Methodist Student House at East Carolina university where Judy worked and was gracious enough to be everyone's favorite Aunt! I was so happy when Glenn came into her life. We all were. Glenn gave me my first temp job, so I could stay a little longer in Greenville, after I graduated. I was always thankful to you for that... and so much more. God bless.
