Grady J. Hurley

July 25, 1945 - May 10, 2016

Grady J. Hurley, age 70, of Hastings, passed away suddenly on May 10, 2016 at Flagler Hospital in St. Augustine. Born on July 25, 1945 in Greenwood County, South Carolina, Grady was the son of the late Ruby and James Hurley. He graduated from Saluda High School in 1962 and went on to be the successful owner of his own trucking company in Philadelphia, PA until he retired in Florida. Grady was a hard-working man, who enjoyed gardening in his spare time and spending time with his grandchildren. Above all, he was a devoted husband, father and grandfather, who adored all of his children, and he will be deeply missed. He was preceded in death by a daughter, Carlotta.

He is survived by his wife of 45 years, Liddie, of Hastings; sons, Grady Lingard of Jacksonville and Robert Lingard of Philadelphia, PA; daughters, Darlene Lingard of Panama, Angela of Dover, Delaware and Michelle Teale of Lexington, SC; grandchildren, Dejean, Hastings, Dante, San Antonio, TX, Shania, Philadelphia, PA, Angelita Lingard, Hastings; great-grandchildren, Viviane and Paco, both of Hastings, and three additional great-grandchildren and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces and nephews. A gathering of family and friends will take place at 11:00 a.m. on Saturday, May 14, 2016 at St. Johns Family Funeral Home. St. Johns Family Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.
