“ Guy, when I think of you I see the blue twinkle in your eyes and your illuminating smile I recall the joy you gave my mother knocking at her door dressed as Santa Claus what a surprise I hear your retort in conversation and I feel the pat you gave me on my back and your handshake telling me you are listening and I knew when I first met you there was only one Guy and it was you we will miss you,

“ I send my condolences to Guy's Daughter and Family. I had the pleasure of knowing and working with Guy for many years in the transportation department at FSDB. Even though I was his boss, our relationship was much more than boss and employee. We were great friends, he was more like a brother to me than anything else. We talked almost daily, either at work or by phone. We also spent a lot of time together, traveling around the State checking out bus stops. We always found time to catch a baseball game and planned our trips to make sure that happened. Guy always put his family first. He loved all of you very much. Guy was a special person, I feel so fortunate that I knew Guy and to have him as a friend. He was loved by all of us here in the transportation department and his passing has left a void that can not be filled. Sincerely, Dave Hopkins

“ Dearest Guy, It's very painful to know you've left this earth way too early. You were a great friend of my brother, Eddie, when you two were growing up in Fernandina Beach, and I know the two of you have now been reunited. My prayers are with your daughter and family.

“ I am so sad to here of the loss of Guy. I remember his sweet happy go lucky personality, with that wonderful smile. I was a couple of years ahead of Guy in school, but he was a childhood friend of my little brothers, and he still looks exactly the same as he did back in the day. May peace be with his family and friends and we know he is now another Angel watching over us.

“ As is often the case in Life's Lessons, they are taught and dispensed with sorrow and pain. But we would be remiss if we didn't strive to search out the positive in these Lessons that God provides us. Our friend Guy's Lesson to us is to live free and happy, always carry a smile on your face and try to enjoy life to its fullest because none of us know when it will be our time. If you have a chance laugh, if you have a chance do, if you have a chance celebrate, and by all means, if you have a chance, Love. St. Peter was awakened last week to the sound of tires screeching, loud music playing and an overheated, out of gas car sliding up to the Pearly Gates. Out stepped Dudley with a grin from ear to ear and a tall boy in his hand. Staring at St. Peter with the giddiness of a child on Christmas Morning he said "Hi Y'all!m Hommmme!!!". With love and many fond memories my Friend, we are happy you are finally at home and at peace. Keep the fire warm, we'll be there to join you soon enough.

“ I will miss knowing that Guy is in this world. He was a special person to me. I had not seen him in years, but sometimes people are just in your heart. It really stings to realize no chance of seeing him again. Guy was a funny, sensitive, loving, lovable person. He was a freind and willing always to help. I loved him, and I always will. My heart is with his family and friends that greive. He will always remain in my heart.

“ Guy, you were like a guardian angel to many students over the years boarding those buses every week at FSDB. You always took great care in making sure they were all accounted for and safe getting to their scheduled departures on time. It was always impressive to watch how well you managed that complex operation. You greeted each student with a smile and offered much encouragement to those who needed it. Your reward awaits you in heaven for the many years you dedicated yourself to serving the students at FSDB. May God grant you the eternal rest and peace you deserve.
