I remember Gwen very well. Her laughter was contagious. She loved life. I was friends with her sister Brenda I loved going to there house in Lambertville to visit. The family was very close to the Hendricks family around the corner and everyone loved the girls (Brenda and Gwen) there mom Vera was the sweetest lady. May she rest in peace and join her family again in heaven. 🙏

TO

The Lord blessed me the day he introduced Gwen into my life approximately 50 years ago, when we all worked for C. V. Hills. I knew that I met someone who was very unique and special. She had recently married Paul and I was married to another Paul. We all became friends. We lived near by and sometimes we would stay up all night playing cards. "Catch 5!" We both had Sheppard dogs and we spent a lot of time together taking the dogs running, either at the Jersey Shore or at Washington Crossing Park. I always missed those times we all spent together. Gwen taught me how to sew! Then after awhile we moved in different directions and I lost contact with her for 5 or 10 years. Then my mother retired to North Florida and one day she was shopping in a Super Walmart and she ran into Gwen in the sewing department ! They exchanged phone numbers and God blessed me a 2nd time to be reunited with Gwen again. She became "Aunt Gwen" to my son who loves her so much for all her wise advice and loving gentle words with him. I truly believe that she had a gift of making everyone feel happy and cared about. She was always smiling and making everyone around her feel welcomed and comfortable. And she did have a very contagious laugh!

As much as my heart is missing her, right now, I know that Heaven is an even brighter place with her there.

I will never forget you, Gwen, you will forever live in my heart.

“ Dear Paul, Byron, Stephanie and Bradley, as well as other family and friends,
Despite the passing of time and distance, proximity from Florida, Gwen (your wife and mother) as well as Father Paul, Byron and Bradley and favourite daughter Stephanie, are permanetly imprinted into my mind and soul. All of you are often thought about throughout the many years since I have been graced in your presence. While coming of age, you were all a driving force and huge positive part of my life. Gwen will be missed and I hope I will one day see the rest of you again. The obituary and the service were very eloquently written and spoken, very moving. I was thankful to be able to watch the live stream from Canada. The slide show of moments and memories was a beautiful tribute. I am researching the game "Spoons" and plan to play with my family when I come back to O.P. next week, as well as my family here in Canada. I am certain you all will be reunited in the house of the Lord. Peace be with you all.

With Love, KayLynn

p.s. Stephanie, you will always be one of my BFFs I Love you forever!

“ All you had to do is hear Gwen giggle, and you knew something was up! I never knew the meaning of BFF until I saw Gwen and Mary Jo together. Paul and Gwen set the bar very high for what love, family and commitment meant. May the love Gwen showed us remain in my heart forever.

“ Gwen was visiting my parents one time and brought a load of Tiger lilies she had dug up from along the canal. My family loved and enjoyed them so much. They have filled in half of the yard and they will always keep bringing us the joy Gwen always gave us all through the years. I love you and will miss you. Love Nora
