

Harold Lee Cammack

March 5, 1946 - January 29, 2026

Harold Lee Cammack Sr passed into the arms of God with family embracing him on January 29th, 2026, free from the many challenges of the Alzheimer's disease of his final years. Harold was born in Bangor, Maine to Walter Cammack and Dorothy McGinley Cammack. He was predeceased by his sister Ginny Sayko (George), Joyce MacDonald (Fred), and Berneice Turcotte (Turk). He leaves his wife Judith Paige Cammack, his son Harold Cammack Jr, stepsons Ralph and David Bartholomew and grandchildren Julia and Max Bartholomew. He also leaves his sister Helen Abbott (Mike), Polly Johnson (Thomas) and brother Walter Cammack (Janet) and his former wife Linda Merrow Cammack.

Harold's life was filled with much laughter and love amongst his many loyal friends and family. His motto "Do unto others that which you would have them do unto you" was paramount in his living "ONE DAY AT A TIME".

Harold graduated from John Bapst High School in 1965. He enlisted in the US Army and was sent to the jungles of Vietnam. After receiving the Purple Heart, he returned to Maine and joined the Bangor Police Department, serving until his retirement, after which he worked in the Federal Courts of Bangor. In all of his endeavors, Harold's kindness and generosity are what we all recall.

Sadness is overshadowed by gratitude to have been able to be his friend.

A mass and celebration of Harold's life will be held in late Spring in Bangor, Maine at St. Johns Catholic Church. All are welcome.
