Helen O'Hagan

November 6, 1919 - March 7, 2015

Helen Louise O'Hagan, age 95, of St. Augustine, passed away on March 7, 2015 at Samantha Wilson Care Center at Bayview. Helen attended Rice University in Houston, and graduated from Baylor University with a degree in Nursing. She also served her country during World War II. After working as a Registered Nurse for 10 years, Helen embarked on an adventure in Alaska, where she homesteaded for 15 years, and later moved to Anchorage, where she worked for the Attorney General, helping to raise his children. Helen was a determined individual, when she set her mind to something she did it. Even though she was nearly blind in her latter years, she walked all over the City of St. Augustine and across the 312 bridge to visit family and friends. She is survived by her daughter, Jan O'Hagan of San Mateo; grandchildren, Benjamin Evan Pedlow of Boston, Ashley Ann Pedlow of St. Augustine; great-granddaughter, Jada Alicia Helene Pedlow of St. Augustine; and friends, Michael Laudoucere, Robert Worth. St. Johns Family Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.
