Henry E. Tarquine

February 28, 1920 - March 14, 2014

Henry Tarquine, 94 of St. Augustine, Fl. passed away on March 14th, 2014. He was born in Geneva, New York on February 29, 1920 to Mary and Vincent Tarquine. Henry served in the U.S. Army and was a master mechanic and worked most of his life in auto bodywork. Henry had a great personality and was always friendly. He spent many years between Florida and New York. The three words that describe Henry are: charismatic, friendly, and helpful. He was preceded in death by his 2nd wife, Artie and his son, Robert. He is survived by first wife, Evelyn their sons, William and Henry, 7 grandchildren, 13 great grandchildren, and numerous nieces and nephews. In lieu of flowers, friends are asked to consider a contribution in Henry's name to the American Red Cross. Romans 14:7-9 For none of us lives to himself alone and none of us dies to himself alone. If we live, we live to the Lord; and if we die, we die to the Lord. So, whether we live or die, we belong to the Lord. For this very reason, Christ died and returned to life so that he might be the Lord of both the dead and the living. St. Johns Family Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

“ I Remember Henry as being a kind man that I met at church with his wife Artie. They were such a cute couple. Always enjoyed visiting them. I know it was hard on Henry when Arti passed away. I visited him in the nursing home and brought him homemade lasagna too before he passed away. You will always be in me & Mark's heart.

“ We knew it was coming, but it's still sad. We will miss him but not forget him. We'll remember all the good things and have kind thoughts. He did have a knack for fixing things. Some of the best years were in Rochester, NY.
