

Howard Anthony Taibl

January 18, 1963 - June 21, 2023

Howard Anthony “Tony” Taibl, 60, of St. Augustine, FL, died peacefully in his sleep on Wednesday June 21, 2023.

Born in Fort Pierce, Florida, he was the son of Franny Davenport and Doug Taibl. Learning the trade of irrigation from his father-in-law, Ivan, he built a business for himself from the ground up where he was in business for over 40 years.

He was a religious man, a member and a deacon within his church, Church of God, A Worldwide Association. He was also an enthusiast of cars, a lover of food, a jack-of-all trades, had a green thumb and always wore the biggest smile in the room.

Tony was predeceased by his mother Franny, father Doug and brother Jeff. He is survived by his wife Monica, eldest daughter Melissa (spouse Mike), son Matthew (spouse Kristen) and youngest daughter Tiffany, grandchildren Alex, Austen, Maddy, Ethan, Addison and Royce, sisters Michelle and Dawn, brother Angus, father-in-law Ivan and mother-in-law Janet.

The memorial service will be held on Sunday July 2nd, 2023 at 12p at the St. Johns Family Funeral Home, St. Augustine, FL and all is welcome to join the family at the gravesite on Sunday July 9th, 2023 at 12p at Forest Hills

Memorial Park, Palm City, FL.

We kindly ask that in lieu of flowers being sent to the home, donations be made to help with the cost of funeral services and to carry out all of his final wishes. Donations can be sent via Venmo or PaPal:

Your words resonate in my soul. I'm a customer of Mr. Taibl's and I can attest to the times his smile and laughter lifted my spirit when he arrived to my home to assist me. He was a kind, respectful human being. I'm so saddened to learn today that he passed away. He will certainly be missed! 🙏❤️🕊️
