February 9, 1920 - February 20, 2019

Jack Shuler, Sr. passed away Wednesday, February 20, 2019 at Community Hospice, Bailey Center, St. Augustine. He had just celebrated his 99th birthday on February ninth. Jack was born in Pontiac, Michigan; but considered himself a St. Augustinian, having lived here nearly 70 years. His career was in the automotive service business and worked locally at R.W. Day Motors and Banta Brothers Pontiac. Jack was a U. S. Coast Guard combat veteran of WW II and was with the occupation forces landed in Nagasaki, Japan six weeks after the bomb blast. His wife of 52 years, Doris Nell Grier, predeceased him in 1995. They were Cub Scout leaders, active in the Ancient City Baptist Church and loved to square dance and travel. Jack was also a member of BPOE Lodge 829 and American Legion Post 37. He is survived by a son, Jack Shuler, Jr. of Chapel Hill, NC; and two granddaughters; Darby Taylor of St. Augustine and Maya Shuler of Chapel Hill. Flowers are welcome, but so are donations in his name to Community Hospice-Bailey Center, St. Johns County Council on Aging, or St. Johns County Sheriffs Department CARE Program.

“ Katie and I send our deepest and most heartfelt condolences to Jack Sr.'s family. I regretfully did not have the privilege of meeting Jack, Sr. personally, but I know that the reach of a great family man is seen in his children and grandchildren. Jack Sr. has left a tremendous legacy in the awesome people that I know - his son Jack, Jr., and his granddaughters Darby and Maya. You are all testimony to the wonderful and loving man that Jack Sr. was. May God grant him everlasting peace, and bless you in your memories of this wonderful man.
