“ June and family, Ray and I extend our sympathy to all of you. I have many good memories of gatherings at my mom's(Virginia Leonard) house when Jim and June would stop by and my family would be in town. June, remember the time you tried to trick our eldest son into eating a tomato on mom's back porch. He thought it was watermelon. I also remember lots of good kidding by Jim's Dad, Uncle George. May your wonderful memories of Jim help you heal and find solace over the next few months.
