“ I met Jim at Crown Cork and Seal many years ago. He took me under his wing and taught me about the corporate world. He was smart, funny and a great guy. I was proud and blessed to call Jim my friend. So many memories. Rest in peace. You will be missed Marie

“ A childhood with two a older brothers in a house filled with love and guidance.

No one could have asked for two better parents with which we were blessed.

I counted myself lucky.

You always led the way with your intelligence and hard work.

I always looked up to you and have missed you these past years as our paths have gone in different directions.

My heart is broken at your passing, but know we will meet again soon.

Mom and Dad will welcome you as they always did as their first born.

Our family loved you and our sympathies go out to Jeff, Jennifer, Kelley, and Lauren and their families at your loss.

Rest in peace big bro as your accomplishments and life will live on in our memories of you.

Your loving sister and her family

“ Jim, my husband, sent me a card with a line that said "The supreme happiness of life is the conviction that we are loved" and we both lived with that conviction together.
