

James Albert Haenfler

December 4, 1953 - May 8, 2012

James Albert Haenfler

December 4, 1953 - May 8, 2012

James "Jim" Haenfler, age 58, of Satsuma, FL., passed away gracefully on Tuesday, May 8, 2012, at the Roberts Care Center In Palatka, Fl., after a courageous battle with liver disease. He was born in Cherokee, Iowa and grew up in Washta, Iowa, graduating Willow Community School in 1972. In 1976 he graduated from University of Florida with a Bachelor degree in Business. He served as a Comptroller for many years for Wendy's International, Miller Enterprises and Peninsular Petroleum. Most recently was proprietor of Atlas Income Tax and Accounting and was very dedicated to his clients. Jim was an avid fisherman and hunter and enjoyed the outdoors through boating and gardening. He volunteered for many years in the Blue Crab Festival and provided the fish for the Catfish Festival in Crescent City. He was preceded in death by his father, Albert "Hap" Haenfler. He is survived by his loving and dedicated wife, Lucille Haenfler (nee Cronk), his mother, Thelma Haenfler (nee Johnson), sisters, Julie Jurgens (David), all of Satsuma, and Jean Schlinz (Craig) of Surprise, Az., and numerous nieces and nephews. Donations in his memory can be made to Roberts Care Center, c/o Haven Hospice, 6400 St. Johns Avenue, Palatka, Florida 32177 St. Johns Family Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Tribute Wall

DH

“Sorry to hear. When think of Jim, would bring back memories of when Uncle Hap's family would come to visit in So. Dak. As kids we would go bird hunting with our BB guns in Uncle Ernie's pig yard.”

---

Don & Peg Haenfler - May 27, 2012 at 12:00 AM