

James Andrew Sloan

December 20, 1957 - July 10, 2014

James Andrew Sloan

December 20, 1957 - July 10, 2014

James Andrew Sloan (Jim) died July 10, 2014 in St. Augustine, FL. He was born Dec 20, 1957. He is survived by his mother, Kathy Yeates Sloan, his son, Vaughn Sloan (Tonya) Independence, MO, his son, Lee Andrew Sloan, Orange Park, FL and his daughter, Bridget Fieber, serving in the U. S. ARMY, one sister, Pamela Baker (Charlie), Charleston, S. C., two grandchildren, Noah and Kenzie Sloan. He was predeceased by his father, Vaughn, and his brother, Gene. James was a retired staff sergeant, U. S. MARINE CORPS. He served in the presidential service as crew chief on MARINE I, HMX-1, Quantico, VA, the presidential helicopter during the terms of Ronald Reagan and George H. W. Bush. Later served at Parris Island, S. C., Cherry Point, N. C. and aboard the U. S. S. TARAWA. He was an avid sportsman, enjoying scuba diving, marathon participation (including the MARINE CORPS marathon yearly), camping and especially fishing with his dad. James was a graduate of the Univ. of FLA, and was employed at Driftwood Art, Gainesville, FL, following his graduation. Private Military services will be held for the family on Thursday, July 17, 2014 at Jacksonville National Cemetery. Local services for James will be announced at a later date. St. Johns Family Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.