“ I only knew Jene from our beach Publix. I presume most people would choose a checkout line by who was behind the register, but I always chose by who the bagger was. Any time I saw him, I was on it! We just had a natural rapport. We were sort of neighbors, he in Ocean Palms, and me just a little north on the marsh. We shared many stories of pets and wildlife on the marsh. I've missed him working at Publix, but I was fortunate to see him from time to time as a shopper. Such a kind soul. I'm honored to have known him.

“ Teddy Hendershot built this house on Maple Street in 1924. Jene was born there the following year. Some of the best times and best friends of our lives happened right there on Maple Street. Thanks to Beverly (Tichy) Ranken for this photo and to all the Tichy's for our forever friendship.
