

Jerry Berg Edelman

March 15, 1943 - January 15, 2025

Jerry Berg Edelman, 81, of St. Augustine, Florida, passed away on January 15, 2025, at UF Health St. Johns. Born and raised in St. Louis, Missouri, to the late Leonard and Lillian Edelman, Jerry led a life full of love, laughter, and meaningful accomplishments.

A graduate of University City High School and Southeast Missouri State University in Cape Girardeau. He bravely served his country as a combat veteran who served in Vietnam and earned a bronze star. Jerry dedicated much of his professional life to the manufacturing industry. For 20 years, he owned and operated a successful company that specialized in making baseball caps and visors in Union, Missouri. His entrepreneurial spirit and hardworking nature made a lasting impact on the community.

In 2010, Jerry retired and moved to St. Augustine, a place he adored for its beautiful ocean views. There, he found joy in the simple pleasures of life, particularly his love for the ocean, travel, cruises, cooking, and painting. He was an avid fan of oldies music, which brought him great joy throughout his life.

Above all, Jerry was a devoted father who cherished his children deeply. His family remembers him not only for his accomplishments but for his warmth, kindness, and ever-present love.

Jerry is survived by his beloved children, Amy R. Edelman and Dr. Adam J Edelman (Leslie); fiancé, Diane Glaser; grandson, Alexander Edelman and brother, Charles Edelman. He was preceded in death by his parents and brother, Ronald Edelman.
