

Jerry Wayne Hockman

August 26, 1950 - April 4, 2021

Jerry Wayne Hockman, 70, of Hastings passed away April 4, 2021 at his residence. He was born on August 26, 1950 in Lexington, Tennessee to the late Samuel and Maxine Hockman.

Jerry was a retired machine operator from a printing plant. He loved his antique cars, guns and motorcycles. Jerry was a hard working man. He was wild, crazy and lived life to the fullest. He spoke his mind even if it may hurt feelings to hear the truth. When Jerry was around everyone could expect to laugh hard or turn red with embarrassment. Jerry touched so many lives and he loved his family dearly. "You're in a better place, no longer in any pain, we love you Dad".

Jerry is survived by his children, Shelia Hazen, Joshua Hockman and Jerri Ann Clayton; grandchildren, Destiny, Lydia, Erianna, Dillan, Mo, Isis, Aeris and Ezra; great grandchildren, Braydn, Wilder and Lucas; many extended family and friends.

St. Johns Family Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Very Nice Tribute.

Sad to hear of Jerry's passing he was a terrific neighbor in Virginia to us, always there to talk or lend a hand and BB became my loaner doggie.

We miss them both when they moved to Florida.

Rest in peace Jerry, see you on the other side my Friend!

Mike & Sandy Wood.

“I'm so sad to hear of Jerry's passing. I remember when I worked at the truck stop in Toms Brooke he always came in. He was always smiling and just a fun guy to be around.

*RIP
