Jerry Dewayne Russell, born on June 25, 1954, in Florala, Alabama, entered eternal life on May 27, 2024, in Palatka, Florida, surrounded by the love of his family. He was a devoted member of the Baptist Church and a cherished member of his community.

Throughout his life, Jerry exemplified dedication and hard work, spending 26 years contributing his talents to Pride Enterprise Inc. His commitment to his work was matched only by his commitment to his faith and his family.

Jerry's interests were varied and spoke to his love of nature and family. He found solace and inspiration in the teachings of God's Word, and he reveled in the simple joys of hunting and fishing. But above all, his greatest joy came from the love he shared with his family, particularly his grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

In his 22 years of marriage to Barbara Russell, Jerry found unwavering love and support. Together, they built a life filled with laughter, love, and shared memories. Jerry was a devoted father to his children, Wayne (Samantha) Russell and Matthew (Nichole) Russell, and a loving stepfather to Carmen (Tommy) Phillips, Travis Eckman, and Stacey (Carl) Smith.

Jerry's legacy extends beyond his immediate family to include a host of grandchildren and great-grandchildren whom he adored. He leaves behind Eli Russell, Max Russell, Oki Russell, Silas Russell, Atticus Russell, Kayleigh Russell, Blake Russell, Paige (Josh) Smith, Aston Feagin, Lane Smith, Nathan Smith, Travis Eckman Jr., Breleigh Smith, Bristol Smith, Jace Feagin, Beau Feagin, and Rhett Feagin.

Jerry was preceded in death by his parents, Maxwell and Juanita Russell, his brother Kevin Russell, his sister step-daughter Angie Maltby, and his great-grandson Beckett Smith. While he may no longer be with us in body, his spirit will live on in the hearts of all who were fortunate enough to know him.
