"Jesse

The sun rises with wisps of pink and apricot Jesse.

You dance.

It was you that filled us with love.

You lit.

You twirled.

Your smile, everyone waited for your smile
because it brightened our world.

Sassy, sensual.

Fluid . Warrior.

You floated with your giggle

from soul to soul

to lift us all

to the realm of spirit.

Fly now Jess,

remind us all how love works

as lights twinkle,

snowflakes fall,
waves crash,
pebbles tinkle in the surf,
waterfalls spill,
flowers open,
as moonbeams light the water....we have you with us
in these precious moments.
Dance Jesse dance.
You are loved.
Clark - be still - she will be wrapped around you always."

“ Jesse was my best friend. We met in Anchorage Alaska in 1967 at Wendler Jr. High school in Choir class. We sat next to each other & hid behind our long hair. We lived a block away from each other and found strength in our relationship with each other. She was fun loving, kind, loved to sing, dance and write moody poems. Our mutual friends Donna & Salli became our 2nd family. We were inseparable for decades. We lived tougher a few times & loved to play dress up, participated in Vietnam protests, go dancing, belly dancing, and have fun! Through out our life even when separated by 3000 we remained sisters. She will be in my heart forever and I send lots of Love to all who loved her. Kathleen Gibson

“ My aunt Chainsaw was a mermaid, cowboy, spider monkey, triathlete, Witch, and so much more. I will forever be grateful to her for teaching me to embrace the wild, wacky, and beautiful sides of life- more often than not, butt naked. My heart is rejoicing with all the happy memories. We love you Jesse.

“ Jesse made everyone she met feel welcome and loved. It was a joy and a privilege to share a friendship with her. We had so many good times together. There will never be anyone like Jesse but remembering her will always warm my heart. Love lives on.

To my dear friend Jesse whom I worked with at FHF. She was ‘ our ‘ Dietitian and what a ‘ lady ‘ as she demonstrated her love for her patients as well as her fellow staff members. We all felt like family there in that little hospital. She was such a well rounded individual... she shared with me that she had done electrical at one time. I understand that she loved putting on parties and costumes and dancing. I know now she’s at peace and no suffering... we will truly miss this beautiful soul. Dance on Jesse, Love, Jack
