In Loving Memory

Joan Ulino

11/2/1940 - 12/20/2025

Joan Ulino (née Azzinaro), born November 2, 1940, was born and raised in Brooklyn, New York, a place she loved deeply throughout her life. She attended Midwood High School.

Joan was married on September 23, 1961, and devoted 37 years to her marriage and family. She dedicated herself to raising her three daughters, creating a warm and loving home. Later in life, she entered the workforce and eventually retired from Sam's Club.

In 1996, Joan relocated to Florida, where she built a full and active life. She was a devout Catholic who attended church weekly and found great joy in her faith. She was also a proud member of Women of Glory and the Italian American Club.

Joan had a wonderful sense of humor and a lively spirit. She loved New York City, game shows, traveling, puzzles, and reading, and she especially enjoyed sharing laughter and stories with those around her.

She is survived by her daughters, Danielle Vroom (Sean) of New Jersey, Nicole Grossling (Andrew Lipnick) of Florida, and Michelle Leitao (Luis) of Florida; and her beloved grandchildren: Aidan Vroom and Olivia Vroom; Nicholas Grossling, Alexander Grossling, and Vincent Grossling; and Isabella Sorgen (née Leitao) and Lilliana Leitao.

She was preceded in death by her sister, Eleanor DeJulio (née Azzinaro), who passed away on November 17, 2025.

Joan will be remembered for her devotion to her family, her strong faith, her love of life, and her enduring Brooklyn charm. Her humor, warmth, and presence will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved her.

“ My sincere condolences to my dear old friend Nicole and her sisters Michele and Danielle. Your mom was a wonderful person, kind, friendly and always active in your lives. I truly remember your mom opening up her home to myself and the other kids back in the Carpenter school/ Jonas Salk Middle school days. She was one of a kind and will be deeply missed.
