“ As long as you knew Joe and Betty you knew you had good company. Growing up around them was a gift. If you were hungry they fed you. If you were tired you could rest. You could always find a friend in them and occasionally make a few new ones around there home. They weren't afraid to teach. Amazing people who led extraordinary lives.

They missed But if anyone ever deserved to have an eternity of peace and happiness, it's them. Thank you, Nanny and Papa. I love you
