John Herbert "Papa John" Field
August 26, 1945 – August 24, 2025

John Herbert Field, lovingly known as "Papa John," passed away peacefully on August 24, 2025, just days before his 80th birthday. Born on August 26, 1945, John lived a life marked by dedication, service, and love for his family.

A proud veteran of the United States Air Force and Vietnam War, John later built a long career with the U.S. Postal Service. Known for his sharp mind and entrepreneurial spirit, he enjoyed following the stock market and selling collectibles on eBay.

John was preceded in death by his beloved wife, Janet Field, and daughter, Amanda Field. He is survived by his daughter, Megan Hasselman and her husband, Billy; his son, Chris Field; and his cherished grandchildren — Eric, Alayna, Cailin, Ella, Liam, and Mia Hasselman — all of whom he adored. Family meant everything to John. He was endlessly supportive of his grandchildren's interests and endeavors and delighted in taking his family on vacations in recent years to create lasting memories together.

A memorial celebration of John's life was held on September 6 at his daughter Megan's home, where family and friends gathered to share memories and honor "Papa John."

John's life of service, generosity, and devotion to family will be remembered and cherished by all who knew him.

“Megan, your dad was surely a “character” at Upper Township School Board meetings where he proudly served for one reason: the children. For the past 30 years, John and I stayed in touch. We shared many common values and I always enjoyed our conversations. May his soul rest in peace.
