“ I was really sad to hear of Johns death at such a young age. I met him about 5 years ago at another Pub. He was in great form that night and seemed to like the couple of songs I sang. To make a long story short he eventually booked me at his own establishment and Ive loved playing there ever since. He created an authentic pub with a real relaxing home away from home atmosphere. It will be difficult going back to Meehans knowing that its founder wont be there. Myself and my wife Maureen extend our sincere condolences to Johns family and to his girlfriend Jenn. Godspeed John.
