

Johnathan Alexander Wilker

February 9, 1993 - June 21, 2022

Today with a heavy heart, we are sad to announce the passing of our beloved son, brother, and grandson.

As an avid surfer, Johnathan loved the ocean, surfboards, his friends, and all of his family. Our lives are brighter for having him in our world. His contagious smile would brighten any room. He had an infectious laugh and sense of humor.

If you were lucky enough to be loved by Johnathan, you were loved fiercely, unconditionally, and without boundaries. He was a staunch defender of the underdog. He was one of those rare men who never chose to remain silent when he could stand and make a difference.

He is preceded in death by his mother, Christine Wilker and his younger brother, Harrison Wilker.

He is survived by his father, Richard Wilker, his sisters, Shannon Wilker, Ashleigh Sargent and Alise Petersen Smith (Parker Smith), his grandparents, Jerry and Susan Hess, fiancé, Dakota Ferrone, six nieces and nephews as well as aunts, uncles, and cousins across the country.

“ Finding it nearly impossible to write a memory, let alone share all the reasons why I said yes to taking your hand in marriage. Above all things. I will love carry and miss you for the rest of my life, every second of every minute. Please anyone reading this give me the strength and courage to keep going. Johnathan Alexander wilker I will see you again one day. But until then I will strive to be the absolute best version of myself. I love you forever and always

“ Where to start.. he was always a gentleman, respectful and made everyone around feel important. My favorite times with John was when he would visit me in Daytona and we would go for a truck ride and just talk.. he’s given me so much good advice on life and I just had talked to him and Dakota the week before ... my heart is broken he was a good man he was raised right in that regard.... Fly high my friend

“ I will always remember Johnathan and Harrison coming to my beach house in Kiawah island with Rick and Christine. They had so much fun learning how to surf on my friend Don's surfboard that he kept at the house. They loved being on the beach and it was hard to get them back to the house. These were such good times. He will definitely be missed and my heart goes out to the entire family. Lori Grammer
