“ Played lots of basketball and other sports with Tony most of my years growing up in Fayette. Commuted with him and Bill S to Northwest State for multiple quarters after high school. We even got to take his cousins monster truck a time or two. I still recall when we drove into flood waters heading toward Archbold and a wave went across the hood of the Pinto. Then it stalled as water poured in around the doors. Tony was in the back with his legs up against his chest (since the water had risen inside) yelling SHARKS, SHARKS... We finally got the car started and backed out. A few of us drove down to see him in Tennessee some years after that. We've got a lot of good memories. After my heart episode 18 months ago, I clearly understand the uncertainty in life. Remember to make the most out of each day. Our best thoughts are with his family and friends. One day at a time. Very sorry for your loss.

“ He was always loving, kind, caring, and incredibly supportive. I'll never forget him nor the things he thought me, he's someone that I aspire to be like.
