“ Oh Joe. What fun times and shenanigans we shared together! We will miss the dollar bets, the peanut butter crackers during golf and the laughs over a beer. We'll never listen to an Elvis song the same again. Be at peace my friend and thank you for all of the great memories. All of our love, Toby and Sam💙

“ I only had the pleasure of meeting Joe in his final months. Everybody has a story and Joe had many. What an amazing life he had! My favorite memory of our short time together was Joe playing his Elvis records (on his awful turntable) and pouring his latest Costco special red wine. Many laughs. Blessed to have known this incredible human and an absolute honor to put a smile on his face through his final days. God bless you Janice & family and may Joe be in his eternal “Graceland” and RIP forever. 🙏🌹❤️🍷

“ Back in 2013, I was lucky enough to be able to visit Janice and Joe in Colorado. Janice had me doing all kinds of outdoor activities, while Joe would go to play golf and stroll the garage sales for Baseball cards or Elvis Presley items. This trip is how Joe taught me to drink IPA's. He and I would go down to the Pub for a happy hour beer. Of course, the whole place knew him and he even had a special stool at the bar. He asked what IPA I wanted and I told him - "I'm not a fan of IPA's and usually drink Ale's." He scoffed at me and would not let me order an Ale without trying an IPA....well, of course I ended up liking his IPA and he just had a small smirk on his face - with a I told you so look. My hope is that he is flying high and he has run into Elvis to share some good times and music.

“ Paul and I had so much fun visiting you in Florida. It was fun having Joe share his old records with us and he laughed when we didn't know the artist. It was Joe's version of Name that Tune. What fun!!

Whenever we go to the Dam Brewery I think of Joe and the good times he had there. He had his beer mug hanging n the wall.
